Your will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread.

Life Group Discussion

Share

If you knew it was going to be your last meal, what would you eat?

We are taught to be independent, but we all relied on someone growing up. Who was the person you relied on the most as a child?

Study

In today's lesson we talked about four things that bread represents. Which one surprised you the most and why?

1. Sustenance for life Psalm 104:27
2. God's word Deuteronomy 8:3
3. Fellowship I Corinthians 10:16
4. Salvation Luke 22:19

Why do you think "Give us this day our daily bread" is not a prayer most people pray? Does it speak to our connection with God and others?

We talked about

1. Recognizing God as your source?
2. Seeking one day at a time?
3. Sharing what He gives?

Which one do you struggle with the most?

Philippians 4:6 (NIV)

⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

On a scale from one to 10, (1 being very anxious and 10 being “no worries at all”) how difficult is it for you to not be anxious?

Luke 6:38 (NIV)

³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you."

How does dependence on God help you to be more generous?

Support

Considering today’s lesson and discussion, what area of dependence do you need to work on? How can we help each other?

Faith is the key to dependence, share what has helped you grow in your faith and dependence?

Serve

Think about one person in the Church and one person outside of the Church you want to connect with this week. How do you plan on doing it?

Name a way you can show your dependence on God this week by being generous with your time, treasure, or talents?
